Happy 20th Dami!*❤️🌟

I'm so happy I get to witness you turn 20. Honestly I feel so lucky to have known you in 2001vl and to cherish how much we've been through already.

You are one of the most genuine people I know. The kind of friend that's just real, no pretending, no stress, just you. And I don't take that for granted at all.

200 level will forever hold a special place in my heart because of you. The way you used to show up at my place hungry like you had a tracker on my kettle 🍲 and it was always indomie you wanted. Every single time. But you had your specific way you liked it too, plenty pepper, no negotiations 😂. And then you'd come with your egg and even gave me too 😊😊 like that was your own contribution to the whole thing. I always think about those moments and just smile because they were so small but so us.

I hope 20 is really good to you Dami. I hope it's the year everything starts falling into place and you get to see yourself the way the people around you see you. You deserve all of it.

Happy birthday, I'm so glad you're my friend 🥰🎂
Love Mercy🌸🌟

Hey Dami,

Sometimes when I want to say or type something I get speechless cos putting you and your cuteness, bossiness, and your behavior in a single write up won't do you justice. I am more than proud to say I have been cheering for you from day one. The first time I saw you: you were angry, complaining about how your roommate locked you outside, I kinda found it annoying and very funny at how you cheeks were just puffed and frowning at everyone, like I am not your roommate ma'am.

Then we became friends, my supplier of chicken, meat and fish and we both loved megachicken food.

I can't believe we bonded over anger and food

When I see you, I feel inspired and I loveee tall people so hence my niceness to you. But do you know my favorite thing about you among many other favorites of course, is the way you carry yourself with quiet grace. And how you are adorable with that baby voice: when you are about to throw a tantrum or demand for something and you don't accept no... I don't think it is even a word you know. I am so happy I met you in 100l. How we go places, the four musketeers, like people hated to see us coming in 100l with that craziness and the laughter- we always had something to laugh about: men, food, diets; mostly men tho and you questioning my life choices which were really poor at that time.

But I have to say you are officially an adult. Dami is twenty and I legit want to cry while typing this. Cos I know you will grow older and age with grace, I will still know you as my childish sweetheart, who has weird nicknames-giving habits.

Whether beside, 100m away or with other people I am very sure, if you call with that childish voice, I will most definitely assist to plot what ever mischief you have up in your little head. Sincerely I never say it enough, butttt I love you, I love our friendship, love your attitude, love your mismatched style it is quite funny and uniquely you, Love when you talk about your interest(and i pretend not to care).

I wouldn't want another Dami and wouldn't want to give out my Dami, other people can have their own Dami . So my love happy twentieth birthday. Praying nothing less than the absolute best for you.

~Divine

Happy Birthday Dami 🎉

I'm really grateful to have you as a friend. You bring good vibes, real energy, and a kind heart everywhere you go.

You might be older now, but you're still a child to me 🥰

I hope this new year of your life brings you closer to everything you've been working for, more wins, more happiness, and fewer worries

Cheers to many more years of greatness ✨

Nova

Happy Birthday, Dami 🎉, you've been such an amazing friend, and I truly appreciate you for who you are. I admire how calm you are in situations and how you don't let things get to you easily, it's a rare and beautiful quality. You're genuinely a sweet soul, the kind of person everyone loves to be around, and you have this special way of turning even the simplest moments into something fun and memorable.

And of course, I can't forget my personal amebo partner 😊 the only person who can call me randomly in the middle of the night just to gist about what's happening in the boys' corner.

Honestly, those moments are always funny and unforgettable.

Being around you is always full of good vibes, laughter, and comfort, and I'm really grateful for our friendship. You make life lighter and more enjoyable just by being you.

I pray this new year brings you more happiness, peace, and everything your heart desires. Keep being the wonderful person that you are.

Happy Birthday once again, Dami ❤️

So like ik Dami will cringe while reading this but that's the point 😊. Dami wasn't my day one but she definitely came through for me on the worst days and so did I for her. She has always been there never abandoning me even when everyone thought the worst. She always saw me for me. In all my time in anchor she was the one that made it worthwhile. No shades thrown but when i ended up with one of the worst Adams on God's green earth and the break up was nasty and people said all sorts of things, Dami stayed and that was even around the time we met and became best friends and I have no regrets ❤️. Even when we went to camp together one time that's when I knew that amazing parents made an amazing daughter. God will bless her parents for bringing her and for taking me as thier own. A very resilient person as ik my bestie to be, as she turns this new age she would achieve great and greater heights as her heart desires. Love you loads 🥰🥰🥰. And hope u grow some bum too 🤩

happpy birthday Dami,

-Jemima

Happy birthday, Yinxi! 🎉

I honestly don't know what I'd do without you, my twin in spirit and my forever best friend.

You make life so much brighter just by being in it, and I'm beyond grateful for you.

Every moment with you is filled with laughter, chaos, and unforgettable memories.

You're not just fun to be around—you're the kind of person who makes everything feel lighter and better.

I love how we understand each other without even saying a word sometimes.

Thank you for always being there for me, no matter what.

You mean more to me than I can ever fully put into words.

I hope this year brings you as much happiness as you bring into my life every day.

I love you so much, Yinxi—happy birthday, my forever twin ❤️
