Happy birthday Mercy, my luv, my babe...

Even though we didn't really know each at first and it took a while for us to be close, I'm still happy we eventually did; I remember that one day that I came to your room really hungry and I left full cause you gave me out of your indomie, I can never forget that, thank you so muchhh

I love your height, your personality, your brains and your pretty face

I hope the Lord continues to keep you and bless you and always make you happy

I luv you my tall girl.

"Llllaaassshhheesssss! My #1 forever love, Happy birthday sweetheart !

It is with great joy that I write this letter as I celebrate you on finally becoming legal . I still remember the first day I met you; when one long thing like that walked into Physiology class with her hair looking like she just fought a war , and the next time I saw you, you'd done gone and changed over to kinky and beads . I will forever appreciate the day u landed in patience in 2004, which made our love build up so strong .

My Indomie partner, it is kuku kettle and Indomie that's part of why we became so close , my gist lover, hot gurl , Anatomy scholar, my fellow phone sneaker, my number one customer, my forehead princess, my garri plug when those children finish my garri for me . I'm so happy to see you finally becoming legal! Even though you look 22, Sha Sha

I pray that this new year shall be a splendid one for you, and in this new year, lines shall fall in pleasant places for you .

Enjoy your day, Princess, and don't forget that I will always love you to the moon and back . Happy birthday once again my queen ; Here's to more lashes to come..
With love from Princess!"

Happy birthday to you mercy. To one of the coolest girl and the smartest girl I know.
Like she is literally a 100/10. But annoyingly, she doesn't view herself like that, she apologizes for everything, can't talk for herself and downplays her 10/10 body which I envy , mitchemmm .

My prayer in this new age that you learn to fill the room , laugh, be unapologetically you, go crazy and be merry cos you deserve that and more.

Sincerely, I have a lot to say and also short of words. But I just want to say how much of an amazing, fine, pretty, smart, cool and kind person you are. And these adjectives are not all But manage these ones for now baby'im .

Have an amazing birthda, love youuuu
Divine
